In reply to your favor of the 2nd inst.
I would say that we have no copies of Vol. 2 Vol. III and of course must be very glad to make the instance known.

As there was no prospect of our meeting at home Mr. Wood thought we might meet in the city.
The place was arranged in the City and the meeting would call on Jan'y 10.

Mr William Poillon
Dear Sir

In accordance with your suggestion I went to the New York University today and saw ~~as~~ from there to see if there was a flat in which three janitors could live for $250 a year. I then went out on Washington by horse car & the wind is a fair one a little high and a little too much on one side to give all the light it are able to. The plastering on the walls will have come out here and there. I spoke to Mr. Wilson about it this afternoon and he said he would let me look in Monday afternoon about three o'clock. He also said about the Executive Committee. I shall try to write to ask you if you cannot allow me the room before that time.
Yours truly, Daniel Parish Junr

Dear Madam,

You may perhaps know of me as the Blind Painter. After a long absence, during which I have spent much time in Europe on the Pacific Coast, as well as in the South and West, I have returned to this city, and propose to give a subscription course of eight lectures, featuring the Great Poets, from Homer to Shakespeare. Messrs J. W. Harper & Son of Harper & Son, New York, have donated and Mr C. Van Dusen has subscribed, and J. B. Hart, Esq., Esq., Mr. H. H. Loomis, and perhaps to others for the same purpose.
The price for the course is at $5 for a ticket to the course. I shall feel much gratified and honored, by the addition of your name to the list, for such a number of tickets as it may please you to take. The lectures will begin at 11 A. M. on Tuesday the 14th of February but it is desirable to complete the list as soon as possible. I hope through the kindness of Gov. Morgan to secure the Lecture Room of the Rev. St. Bernard Church in Fifth Avenue.

With sentiments of the highest Respect, I am, dear Madam

Very truly yours

Geehrter Herr!

Hiermit stelle ich meinen verbindlichsten Dank ab für die mich zugesandte gedruckte Abhandlung der Numismatische und Archaeological Society welche ich richtig empfangen habe.

Mit der Post habe ich so eben, ein Buch in Kreuzband an Sie abgesendet welches ich bitte der Society von mir als Gabe zu überreichen. Das Buch enthält Abbildungen der in Skandinavien, besonders in Schweden, gefundenen Alterthümer, Geräthschaften der Ureinwohner von ältester Zeit welche Geräthschaften sich hier im Archæologischen Reichsmuseum befinden und von welchen sicherlich verschiedene den Amerikanischen Geräthschaften Alterthümer gleichen oder ähnlich sind weshalb ich vermuthete das dieses Werk auch für Amerikas Archæologen von Interesse sein wird. Leider ist der Text des Werkes in Schwedischer Sprache abgefaßt, hoffe jedoch das eine Uebersetzung in New York leicht zu erreichen ist.

Hiefolich bitte ich um Entschuldigung das diese Zeichen in deutscher Sprache geschrieben sind welches für mich geläufiger und leichter geht als das englische...

Mit ausgezeichneter Hochachtung habe ich die Ehre zu sein

Ihre ergebene

Lea Ahlborn

I am very much obliged to you for the printed Catalogue of M. & A. Society, which came to me safely. Have just sent you by mail a book which you will please give to your Society as a present from me. The book contains pictures of various <sup>partly</sup> ~~some~~ in Scandinavian but mostly so in Swedish.
The statistics found are at the A. S. rooms at this place, and no doubt a great many bear resemblance to such as you may have in America, & so I thought that this work would be of some benefit to you. I'm only sorry that the work is in a foreign language to you, but trust you will be able to have it translated and send it

I write these few lines to you in the German language, as I am better posted there in the English.

Yours truly,

Lea. Hilborn.

Dear Sir,

My Dear Sir

When I first came to town, my first friend it was being heard at the time and it was an accident that my first letter was heard.

Robert Sedgwick was invited to our society for a year and probably lived in the city as present as I glad his name is in the papers once in awhile in connection with some literary or scientific association.

There were more of a reading man than I and might ascertain his interest, as he is well known.

The Henry Stoddard I think is the same Stoddard who was sent down for the same purpose in Europe.

The Walter Thurbull I do not know except in a distant way he is certainly one of the best friends as was Mr. E. Stevens.

I am pleased to hear that our Society is no longer homeless, will try to attend the opening

Yours Truly

I particularly wish I could be been done in the way of decorating the old dungeon & making a habitable place of it. Remember that besides being responsible for $50 on <sup>acc</sup> of towards payment for decorations if it is decided to raise the money in that way - Please keep me informed.

Wm Poillon Esq,

Secy. Am. Numismatic & Archaeological Society

Dear Sir: Your esteemed favor of 22<sup>d</sup> inst. enclosing circular of invitation to the Society's first meeting in their new rooms and calling my attention to your previous letter to me of Jan 23<sup>d</sup> ulto, is received this morning.

Your previous letter came duly to hand; since when I have almost daily been trying to find time or opportunity to visit the Congressional Library and interview Mr. Spofford relative to the subject matter of your communication, to which my attention had not been previously called, until yesterday when I saw Mr. Spofford the Librarian, who informed me that Mr John R. Hickcox had been dismissed on the charge of opening mail letters and pocketing the money, which charge he admitted to be true. Mr. Spofford stated that he exceedingly regretted the commission of the offence, as Mr. Hickcox had served for a number of years faithfully and acceptably.

I regret that circumstances will not admit of my accepting your invitation to the meeting in question; but as I hope to visit New York some time during the coming Spring I will accept your cordial invitation to the Society's rooms at any time.

I find there are twelve or fifteen coin collectors here, and probably ten times that number, and I have recently been considering the advisability of calling a meeting for the organization of a local Numismatic Society.
What do you think of the project?

Always glad to serve you or the Society, I remain Dear Sir, respectfully, &c.

Wm. Willou Esq. Dr. Sir -

The grounds in where Company I expected to make a visit to Florida, but who ~~have~~ were compelled for the time to give it up on account of sickness have concluded to start to-morrow and have so notified me - and I am consequently today (Sunday) making preparations to accompany them - I thought I might be able to get my report ready so I could send it to you today but find it impossible to do so - will prepare it immediately on my return home and then if necessary a special meeting can be called -

I enclose with this check to your order for $12.50 this being the amt. as I understood it that we are to pay for kind due on the 15th prox. that is $62.50 less $50. - allowance for repairs to room - I suppose the other bills can await my return which will be in about two weeks if all goes well.

I very much regret my inability to be present at the Annual Meeting it will be the first time since I have been a member I think I have sent out all the bills for the year there will probably be some at the meeting desiring to pay up - if so will you kindly there ~~inside~~ <sup>and</sup> any <sup>and</sup> receipt for me. - we can fix the matter when I come home. - Can you furnish me with the name of C. P. Tenney - I suppose I must have had it but cannot now find it - all the others I have - I should like to propose the name of Ed. Trombald for Resident Membership - I spoke to him about it one day at the saloon room and he said he would like very much to become a member but understood we were opposed to dealers as members do you think there would be any objection to him? If you do, would not propose him. Please advise me as to what was the cost of moving the safe from Tenements as I wish to pay this as a donation to the Society.

William Billings Esq.

Dear Sir:

You must pardon my delay in replying to your note, but I have been so upset through the May moving that I have had hardly any time to collect my thoughts.
In reply to your request I should judge that the few remarks which I made at the presentation should be in record. I have been convinced to the contrary. Besides, I shall be compelled to draw upon my negotiation in complying with your request, as much as I have no transcript of what I really did say. Still I will leave the whole thing to your good judgment and append what I either said or should have said <sup>Mr. President & gentlemen</sup> "I am not skilled enough to estimate the different qualities which — manuscripts will should possess in enough. In many I have observed that some judges set store upon the variety, which is largely its marketable value; some upon the historical associations which are its intellectual worth and some upon its the aesthetic workmanship which is its artistic value. But I suppose that this is the order in which all who care Appreciate these qualities would place them. But there is one thing which has always struck me as of peculiar importance, and that is, the position which numismatics has assumed in the preservation of manand events which otherwise, might have passed from the remembrance of the race or while the great iconoclast, may break the marble image, and the hand of man, not less destructive, may appropriate to ignoble purposes the most precious remains of the past.

The humble works of the die caster pass through all the vicissitudes of fortune and bear to the later generations the history of the past. None of us who have paid attention to the study of classic it are failed to observe the inestimable value of this branch of archaeology in determining the character of works which otherwise would have been known only by tradition. In presenting to you, therefore, this evening a medallion which I could have wished that it had possessed all the qualities I have enumerated at least it atones the merit of being rare was much as it is one of six which have been struck. It is historical, as it commemorates the presidency of me to whom the admirers of numismatics owe a large debt of gratitude, and lastly I sincerely hope it may serve in years to come as a perpetual remembrance of him whom it is designed to portray and adorn the rolls of this society when our work shall have fallen into never fading and the labors of our day shall have ended. If it performs this mission gentle man, whatever his failings in other respects, I may well rest satisfied.

Allow me to present it to our Society as a slight tribute of regard to our worthy president, my instructor for five years, my associate for twenty <sup>three</sup> years and my friend since as a boy I was thrown to connect with him."

Resolved - That in the

At the Bushnell sale which I send you a rubbing. I believe you had one in your collection.

Can you give me any information regarding it where you obtained it. To whom it about it. I believe that these medals were given to Indians who assisted that the inscription on the reverse gives the name of the Indian and the

Mr. W<sup>m</sup> Poillon
Dear Sir:

Your favor in regard to James Rosedall, dated May 18, 1882 was duly rec'd. And I venture to ask a few more questions in regard to matters growing out of my search after the antecedents of this party.

1. Is there to your knowledge, in New York, (or has there been, - and now dead) one Prof. Rawson or Grayson, who has ever been mentioned as Consul to Jerusalem?
2. Did your Socy purchase or advance a loan upon, any old pictures, some time the present - year between March & May?

If so who were the parties dealt with. The pictures — if there were any, were small — 14 in by 20 in perhaps. only two, & claimed as of very great age.

Hoping to hear from you

Dear Sir

I have to acknowledge your kind letter of 24th and at the same time the receipt of your annual Report of the Numismatic & Archaeological Society, received some time since. which you were good enough to send to me, and which I should have answered before but I have been waiting to find time to write a long letter on Archaeological matters, but spare hours never come at all and I usually run my head far into the small hours of the night. I also your Report in his address speaks of his collecting the given away most of the third. This Pottery is very interesting, as being made by a race ignorant of the Pottery-wheel, a tool known to the Assyrians, Persians, Egyptians, & Greeks, in the most remote times, in the Tomb of "Ti" in the Desert of Sakara in Egypt. I have seen the Potter represented on the wall next to his wheel, I must tell you more of the Egyptians some day, if that old fellow with the long scythe, does not come along, and put a quietus on my pen.

I get the Asthma some times.
I go to town now, so you go unless I am compelled to.

I will be very glad to make your acquaintance at an time.

I am always pleased to know those that are engaged in Scientific Studies and in Antiquarian research, also in matters that tend to the progress of the Human family, and more particularly the American branch of it.

I am Dear Sir
Sincerely M. W. Evans.

Rosebury, Mass.  $\frac{2}{3}$  Nov. 28/82.

Dear Sir,

Your letter of 15th inst., informing me that, at a regular meeting of the American Samianitic and Archaeological Society, I had been nominated for the Executive Committee, was very much surprised and gratified.
I had, however, arrived in Cambridge only a few days ago, during my absence.
That by these circumstances it would not have been more promptly advised.

I am deeply sensible of the honor you conferred upon me, and in gratitude, which I feel in great measure accites it to do. I do not inquire either in the knowledge that I shall be a quite unnecessary member of your honorable body. It is impossible for me to see and hear the views of the various archaeologists and the various connections with the study of the history of art and I have, therefore, expressed to me this view of the subject. Nevertheless, I have not yet been able to do so, in the course of a light so far spent in laying the foundation to cultivate these societies as from me a realization is I might be able to wish to do.

As soon as I can get a course of of my "U.S. and the Freedmen" I will revised, I shall do myself the pleasure to send it to you for the acceptance of the Society. The only little to a large than the phrases of your library lies on the fact that it contains, shall be ferences to the numerous and in-vulnerable societies so far as they were known to me. I regret exceedingly the unsatisfactory character of the paragraph devoted to the American Anti-slavery and Abolitionist's Society.
I have been invited and I often have been called I now wish, I have to re-amend, in the second edition - if that should ever be called for.

In acknowledging the receipt of the Report of the County Society

I find that through an supposed. If possible I would like to exchange it for two medals of Napoleon I. - the two being worth considerable more than the denarius.

I will leave these medals in the

Dear Sir.

Yours just to hand. Since I last wrote you I have been scouring the City for works on the North American Indians without much success. As we have no library of any extent in our City still I do not despair of success in working up a paper. I suppose it would be impossible for you to find out for me if there existed in New York. about 1760 a silver Smith with the initials D. C. or D. C. Jr. The knowledge of this point would be of some use to me. I wrote to Mr. Betts as you advised asking if he could give any information regarding Canadian Coins. I enclose a medal for the Society which I hope will prove an addition to your numismatic collection

Yours respectfully
 R. W. H. H. H.

These are old cut of "Canadian Coins" page 130 of Vol. 1 in the "Colonial" published by Harper & Bros 1880. Do you think it possible - it is a duplicate copy of the cut and I would like very much to have it -

My Dear

I note with both to ascertain if the American Numismatic or Numismatic Society is in possession of a copy of the "Wyoming Medal." We have not yet replaced Hudson Blake pleasure in forming a one in bronze which they you will do me the honor of presenting in my name The history of this medal briefly is this Following in the popular current which reached its flood in 18, 0, 0, the citizens of the historic valley of Wyoming have determined in 1898 to commemorate the Battle of the Battle of Wyoming of July 3, 1778 in its 100th anniversary July 3, 1898 The descendants of those who fought on that memorable day against John Butter's brave Indian allies are scattered throughout the land to many heads of families in fact.

the Massacre that there are few of these descendants who cannot number among their ancestors one who shed his blood on Myomings fair field.
In the Spring of 1898 vast preparations were made for the Celebration of the day. Leading men all over the Country were invited to participate The Ceremonies were held at the lovely villages of Fatty Fat, where stood the defence so named at the time of the Massacre - & Myoming, near where stands the Granite Shaft which marks the spot where these patriots laid down their life - & which holds the mouldering remains of all who were killed at that time. Such an occasion as the Centennial of that event did not seem complete without allusion to commemorate the Celebration. Application was made by the Committee of Arrangements met Mr. George Morgan, designer at the U. S. Mint, Phila., who designed cut the dies, & struck the medal which is enclosed. It is described thus Obverse. White Settlers Surprised by Indians. One white man is slain; a second has fallen upon his knees with wounds, & has turned to look with a plea for quarter to a swarthy Indian who stands over him with tomahawk uplifted to strike. Three other Indians armed with rifle & spear are hastening to a log cabin, which appears in the back ground from the roof & window of which the volume of smoke curls towards the heavens, indicating the work of vandalism begun.

Surrounding this scene is the inscription "In Commemoration of the Battle & Massacre of Wyoming July 3. 1778."

Revised. A representation of the Wyoming Monument erected in 1856. near the town of Wyoming - on each side of the shaft the respective dates 1778 - 1878. Surrounded with the inscription

"Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori."
